LEMON BATH POPULAR.

A London dispatch says the "lemon bath" is the latest summer craze—one, likely to achieve much popularity with those who delight in new sensations and have the leisure to pursue them. Many virtues are claimed for it.

"It is a valuable aid to beauty," a Bond-street beauty specialist declares "and the custom has, I hear, been adopted by royalty. Queen Wilhelmina of Holland borrowed the idea from the Dutch Indies, and attributes a great deal of the satinlike softness of skin to the refining and cleansing influence of the lemon baths in which she has been indulging for some weeks on the advice of the wife of one of her colonial governors.

"The proper way to prepare the lemon bath is as follows: Five lemons, cut into slices, are left to soak in a basin of water for half an hour. The water drawn into the bath must be moderately hot, but not warm enough to be enervating, and the lemon water is added to it slowly, the whole being stirred vigorously the while, as in the mode when making cocoa. There is no objection to a few slices of the lemon peel being allowed in the mixture.

"As a great invigorator the lemon bath cannot be improved upon," said a second specialist, "and many of my clients are indulging daily during the heat wave. The lemon juice thus introduced into the warm, soapy bath has a most soothing, refreshing and softening effect.

"The above recipe is an excellent one to follow, with just this addition. The lemon solution, even five lemons to one basin of water, is too strong for the face and neck. It would be softening of course, but it would be apt to render the skin yellowish if indulged in freely. To obviate this a tumblerful should be taken out, and to this added a few drops of rosewater. This mixture must be kept separate, and used afterward to sponge the face and neck. As little as possible of the bath water should touch the neck, and none the face."

THE MURDER OF HAZEL DREW.

A dispatch from Troy, N. Y., says what is considered the most important point yet developed in the Teal pond murder mystery came into possession of the police late yesterday, when county Detective Kaye found the suit case which Hazel Drew carried the day before she was murdered, and for which the police have been conducting an exhaustive search.

From articles found in the suit case it is established, the police say, that Hazel Drew did not intend to go to Averill Park on the day she was murdered, and the startling theory is advanced that she was murdered in Troy and taken either by carriage or automobile to Teal pond, where her body was cast into the stagnant waters.

There is much to bear out this theory, and it appears that the authorities are nearing a solution of the mystery. In the first place, the murdered girl's black leather handbag, containing all of her money except 5 cents, was found in the suit case. The fare to Averill Park, near Teal pond, is 20 cents. While this find was made in Troy, detectives at Teal pond found a glove which was worn by the girl, and in the finger of it was a 5-cent piece.

A reward of $1,000 for the arrest and conviction of the murderer of Miss Drew was offered by Rensselaer county yesterday.

Taft Must go on the Stump.

Hot Springs, Va., July 15.—"Taft must stump Indiana," says Merrill Moores, an attorney of Indianoplis and classmate of the candidate who arrived here today with a cry for help from the west. Moores came to Hot Springs for fifteen minuts talk with Taft on a subject he declares he would not trust to correspondence and is apparently full fear that republican chances of success there are in the great danger. Kern's nomination for the vice-presidency by the democrats Moores declares, makes the danger in his state all the greater. He holds that the only salvation for the republicans there is to have Senator Hemenway in charge of the Chicago headquarters and for the candidate of the republicans to deliver speeches in Indianapolis and three or four of the other Indiana cities.

Leaped To Her Death.

New York, July 15.—Overcoming a nurse after a desperate battle, Mrs. Lena Richards, aged 31 years, of Jersey City, leaped early today from a third floor window of Bellevue Hospital and was crushed to death on the concrete pavement below. Mrs. Richards, who was suffering from epilepsy, acted so strangely on her admittance to the hospital yesterday that she was given into the charge of a special nurse. Early today the woman asked for a drink of water and as her guardian turned to replace the empty cup she leaped from bed and ran to the window. The nurse fought hard, but the woman's gown tore in her grasp and the patient leaping to the window sill jumped. She was dead when picked up.

THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 16, 1908.

IT IS an old saying that when one goes into an eating house he had best not be too observant. Some contend that a man must eat his peck of dirt before he dies and this is no exaggeration if some Washington eating houses are taken as a standard, for as the result of the crusade against unclean lunchrooms in that city begun on Monday by Health Officer Woodward, in which 61 eating places were inspected, warrants will be issued for the arrest of 20 proprietors who have failed to obey the regulations. In 40 cases owners have been warned to be more careful as to cleanliness and sanitation, and in only 1 case out of the 61 is a proprietor commended for the condition of his establishment.

FOLLOWING the Pan-Anglican, another great congress is to assemble in London this summer. This is the Eucharistic Congress, which was first held at Avignon in 1882. It will be the greatest gathering of Roman Catholic ecclesiastics ever seen in England. The Duke of Norfolk is president of the reception committee, which is making preparations to provide suitable accommodations for the large number of clergy who will attend. There will be present several cardinals from the United States, Rome, Spain, Germany, France, Belgium and other countries. The special preacher at Westminster Cathedral will be Cardinal Gibbons.

ACCORDING to a London dispatch the lemon bath is the latest summer craze. It is said to be a valuable aid to beauty and makes the skin soft and satinlike. During the hot weather like that which has prevailed recently it would be refreshing and invigorating. Of course there are some women sour enough not to require lemons in their bath while it would take a barrel of them to overcome the ugliness of some others, but on the whole it is more than probable that a lemon or so squeezed in a tub of water would be beneficial to the bather Nothing beats a trial and as lemons are cheap all having a bath tub can experiment.

MR. SLEMP, it is said, will be renominated by acclamation, as the republican party's candidate for Congress in the Ninth Virginia district at the convention to be held at Norfolk, July 30 h. It is understood that there is no organized movement against Mr. Slemp in his own party and that the democrats will not oppose him. The democrats of the Ninth district are a sorry set. They will put up no candidate of their own nor will they support any independent candidate who opposes Mr. Slemp. They seem to be joined to their idols.

FOR the first time in the history of the democratic and republican parties both declare for revision of the tariff. But the public mind is filled with suspicion as to what the republicans mean by revision, the general impression being that a revision upwards is intended by the latter.

THE board of ordnance of the War Department will recommend at the next session of Congress an appropriation of $1,000,000 for balloons for coast defence. There seems to be always some one ready to move for an appropriation.

From Washington.

Washington, July 16.

Close friends of Judge Taft who have talked with him since the Ohio senatorial situation began to approach its present acuteness, are convinced that the entrance of both Representative Burton and former Governor Herrick as contestants for Senator Foraker's seat would be the salvation of the Taft electoral ticket in that state. With Burton and Herrick both in the race, Judge Taft would announce that he could not possibly choose between two such loyal supporters and would then withdraw his personal friends from the fight against Foraker. In return for this, it can be stated that the Foraker followers would vote for Taft. Instead of continuing the war on Foraker, Taft has been laying the ground work for peace between the factions. His letter, thanking Senator Foraker for his congratulations on the nomination, in which he referred to the senator as having gotten him his first job in public life, touched a chord that responded with warmth. Senator Dick, who stood loyally by Senator Foraker in his fight against Judge Taft, has been offered a prominent position in the coming campaign and will accept unless the senatorial situation forbids his doing so. The ambitions of Representative Burton and Governor Herrick to come to the Senate are old stories in Washington. The Cleveland congressman has never forgiven Senator Dick for taking the senatorship left vacant by Senator Hanna's death away from the Forest City. He believes that his long service in the House entitles him to the gratification of the ambition of a life-time. The manœuvers of ex-Governor Herrick for the senatorship have been watched with interest. His purchase of a newspaper in Youngstown, Dayton, and a number of country towns, to say nothing of the money he is reported to have furnished a Columbus business man for embarking in newspaper proprietorship in the Ohio capital has been reported here with the assurance that some day all these papers would serve a useful purpose. From this view point of Burton and Herrick, the victory of the other this year means the blasting of their ambition forever. Should either win, the other would be geographically ineligible to contest for Senator Dick's seat, two years hence. They may be prevailed upon to acquiesce in Foraker's return to the Senate next year and then fight it out with Senator Dick for the senatorship that would belong to northern Ohio in 1911.

After holding the matter in obeyance since his nomination for the vice-presidency, candidate James Schoolcraft Sherman has definitely decided to resign the chairmanship of the republican congressional committee. It is stated that Mr. Sherman immediately call a meeting of the executive committee at Utica and tender his resignation, at which time a successor will be elected, Representative James A. Tawsdy is the man most talked of for the place.

The Interstate Commerce Commission made public today a number of new conference rulings, one of the most important of which is a decision that a household servant, traveling with a member of the family entitled to a pass, is included as eligible for free transportation.

Orders have been issued by the Navy Department to the gunboat Marietta to proceed to Puerto Cortez, Honduras, to investigate the revolutionary activity in that place and to protect American interests in which they are involved.

The Postoffice Department today put a quietus on the operations of the Mutual Grain Company, 78-80-82 Wall street, who the inspectors allege, have done a rushing business in the sale of puts and calls.

THE SHRINERS.

The Imperial Council of the Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine at St. Paul yesterday elected officers and decided to hold the conclave of 1909 in Louisville.

In accordance with precedent, Frank O. Roundy, imperial potentate, was not a candidate for re-elect on and the officers below him were each advanced a step, leaving only the lowest office, outer imperial guard, open to contest

Potentate—Edwin I. Alderman, Marion, Iowa.

Deputy Potentate—George L. Street, Richmond, Va.

Marshal—J. Putnam Stevens, Portland, Me.

Captain of the Guard—Henry F. Niedringhaus, jr., St. Louis.

Outer Guard—Charles F. Ovenshire, Minneapolis.

Treasurer—Wm. S. Brown, Pittsburg.

Recorder—Benjamin F. Rowell, Boston.

Arab Patrol of Almas Temple, Knights of the Mystic Shrine, of Washington, D. C., won the great competitive drill, which was the big feature of the imperial council yesterday. Twenty-five patrols took part in the contest, and competition was extremely keen.

JAMESTOWN CREDITORS.

L. L. Lewis, United States District Attorney, yesterday petitioned the United States District Court of Norfolk that the claim of the government against the bankrupt Jamestown Exposition, amounting to $897,953 57, be given priority over all other claims of whatsoever nature against the exposition. Other outstanding indebtedness of the exposition is far in excess of the goverament claim. It is represented by first and second mortage bonds, stock subscriptions of $1,000,000, mechanics' liens and general accounts.

Should the petition of the district attorney be granted, other creditors of the exposition would unlikely get anything, and unlikely the government all of its claim, unless, indeed, the scheme to sell the exposition site to the government should go through. The petition of the district attorney makes no mention of the proposed sale to the government The claim of the government is the balance due on the government's $1,000,000 loan to the show. The petition is based on the clause of the loan agreement that the government is to have a first mortgage on all receipts of the exposition.

STATE BAR ASSOCIATION.

Wyndham Meredith, president of the Virginia State Bar Association, has received a letter from W. H. Taft, the republican candidate for president, accepting an invitation to address the lawyers of Virginia at their annual meeting at Hot Springs in August.

Mr. Taft was invited to make the annual address, but in a letter received by Mr. Meredith, the former secretary of war said that on account of pressing engagements he would not be able to prepare such an address, but would be glad to speak on general topics of interest to the profession.

The annual address will therefore be delivered August 5 by Judge William Lindsay, formerly president of the Supreme Court of Kentucky, and at one time United States senator from that state.

Papers will be read by Holmes Conrad, of Winchester; Armistead C. Gordon, of Staunton, and Henry C. McDowell, judge of the United States district court for the Western district of Virginia.

TO CUT DOWN EXPENSES.

As a result of the "millionaires" hard times of which Stuyvesant Fish complained last Saturday, an investigation indicates that the next few months will see a reduction of $15,000,000 in the household expenses and personal expenses of New York's leading millionaire families. Stuyvesant Fish's complaint made Saturday of the hardships involved in living on $50,000 a year instead of $250,000 finds an echo in many Fifth avenue and Riverside Drive homes. Figures obtained yesterday show that eight representative New York families in the "400" will begin August 1 by cutting their living expenses more than $1,500,000 a year. He said it was as hard for a man with an income of $250,000 to live on $50,000 as it was for a man making $15 a week to be reduced to $10 a week.

News of the Day.

The massive sandstone pillars which for almost 70 years have formed a conspicuous architectural feature of the Fifteenth street (east) front of the Treasury building in Washington are giving place to solid granite columns, each weighing 32 tons, exclusive of a 6-ton granite base. On Tuesday night a posse of over 1,000 scoured the woods in the vicinity of Beaumont, Texas, in an effort to capture an unidentified negro that attacked and beat into insensibility a thirteen-year-old white girl, Ada Bell Hopkins, inflicting injuries which may prove fatal. It was the intention of the mob to inflict quick punishment. Later Tuesday an aged negro was mistaken for the one sought and shot to death. The mob burned two negro amusement resorts and threatened to destroy the other buildings occupied by negroes in the vicinity of the scene of the crime.

A dynamite bomb exploded with terrific force early yesterday in the areaway of a fashionable apartment house in west One Hundredth and Fortieth street, New York, hurled scores of the occupants from their beds, shattered many windows and threw the tenants into a panic. A huge hole was torn in the cement flooring of the court where the bomb went off, and considerable other damage was done to the building. There were 42 families living in the apartment house, but as far as the police could learn, none of them had received threatening letters, and the reason for the bomb-throwing is much of a mystery.

Steve Adams, member of the Western Federation of Miners, was acquitted in Grand Junction, Col., yesterday afternoon of the murder of Arthur Collins. Adams' alleged confession of the crime was excluded as evidence by Judge Shackelford, and eight witnesses testified to an alibi. Collins, who was manager of the Smuggler Union Mine at Telluride, was shot on the night of November 19, 1902, while playing cards in his office. No move was made to rearrest Adams on any of the other murder charges growing out of the Colorado labor troubles, and it is said he will be permitted to go free, as the authorities are convinced of the impossibility of securing a conviction in any of these cases.

F. R. D. Prickett, a retired minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church and former recorder of the borough of Metuchen, N. J., was shot and killed in the street of that place yesterday. Archie Herron, charged with the shooting, stood at the head of the stairs in his home, with a cocked revolver to defy arrest, but surrendered when the constables told him he would be taken, dead or alive, no matter how many he killed. Two years ago while Mr. Prickett was recorder, Herron was frequently arraigned before him for disorderly conduct and was once sentenced to ten days in jail. Mr. Prickett was 68 years of age, and had charges in various Methodist churches in the northern part of New Jersey. He was editor of the Methodist Recorder, a weekly paper. Herron has made no statement of the affair to the authorities.

RECEPTION TO MR. KERN.

The nonpartisan reception given John W. Kern, the newly nominated democratic candidate for vice-president of the United States, held in the court-house yard at Indianapolis, Ind., last night, on the candidate's arrival home from Denver, was as hearty and generous and spontaneous as the citizens of Indianapolis, regardless of politics, could make it. Fully 5,000 persons gathered in Delaware street and in the court-house yard, and gave Mr. Kern a hearty welcome and cheered him enthusiastically.

The candidate addressed the crowd for about twenty minutes, following his presentation by Charles W. Fairbanks, Vice-President of the United States. Four years ago Mr. Kern presented Mr. Fairbanks to a big nonpartisan gathering under similar circumstances.

THE ELKS.

"Lodge of Sorrow" was the principal number on the Elks' programme at Dallas, Texas, yesterday. Feeling addresses were delivered, the principal one being by Henry A. Melvin, chief justice of the Supreme Court of California.

Today is expected to be the biggest day Dallas has ever seen. The magnet which will draw the crowd is the great Elks' parade. More than 100,000 persons viewed a massed band parade which was held last night The police were compelled to order every street car to quit service on the main street and that thoroughfare was converted into a temporary sidewalk.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Would Have Saved Him $100,00.

"In 1902 I had a very severe attack of diarrhoea," says R. N. Farrar of Cat Island, La. "For several weeks I was unable to do anything. On March, 18, 1907, I had a similar attack, and took Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which gave me prompt relief. I consider it one of the best medicines of its kind in the world, and had I used it in 1902 believe it would have saved me a hundred dollar doctor's bill." Sold by W. F. The Troy Murder Mystery.

Troy, N. Y., July 16.—Discovery that Hazel Drew, whose mysterious murder has stirred this city and surrounding country as no other crime has ever done, had a mysterious sweetheart whom she had visited in New York, Providence and Boston has given the authorities a new line of investigation on which they are today hard at work. The finding of the dead girl's missing suit case and purse checked in the Union station here proves that she was alive Tuesday afternoon, but it reveals no motive for her trip to Teal pond where her body was found.

Hazel Drew's unexplained trips to eastern cities were revealed by Mrs. Cary, the girl's last mistress. It is believed that she went to meet a man whose initials, "C. E. S.," were signed to several letters found in the girl's trunk, and there is a possibility, the police believe that she left the Cary home expecting to meet this man in Troy.

Train Ditched.

Greenwich, Con., July 16.—Miss Mary Armstrong, traveling with her mother, was killed and ten passengers on the White Mountain express leaving grand central station at 8:40 this morning were injured when the rails spread, just as the train passed the station at a terrific speed, ditching all the cars. The train, composed of heavy Pullmans and drawn by two of the big Westinghouse motors, in the New Haven's electric zone is considered one of the fastest in the service.

It rushed past the station here at a speed estimated to have been more than 60 miles an hour. The rails spread just as the motors were going out on the bridge west of the station. So great was the speed that the four forward cars went on for a quarter of a mile, plowing up the bridge, and the ground beyond, finally coming to a stop in the ditch. The other cars broke from the end of the train before they reached the bridge.

The Wireless in Naval Warfare.

London, July 16.—Naval warfare by wireless telegraphy was inaugurated by England today. The fleet of over 300 vessels, that has been maneuvering in the North Sea since the first of the month, began a gigantic sham engagement, with the movement of every vessel controlled by the admiralty office in London which communicated its orders by wireless. England's greatest naval strategists assembled at the admiralty office and with the position of every vessel in the greatest fleet ever assembled spread before them on a map, they began the great naval game. To all appearances the men might have been playing chess instead of controlling the movements of the vessels that cost hundreds of millions and carried thousands of sailors. The experts would make no comment on the result of this new venture in naval science, except to say that it has proved satisfactory.

The Prohibitionists' Convention.

Columbus, Ohio, July 16.—Following a day of oratory, song and enthusiasm, the prohibition national convention today entered upon the real work of adopting a platform of principles and placing in nomination candidates for president and vice president. The platform committee wrestled with the phraseology of the resolutions all last night in order to be ready to report them today. The schedule calls for the adoption of a platform and the placing of names of candidates for president before the delegates in the morning session; recess at noon until 2 p. m., and balloting on candidates for the two nominations in the afternoon sessions.

The convention was called to order at 10:15 by temporary Chairman Patton. After the invocation, permanent Chairman Chas. S. Scanlon, of Pittsburg delivered a second keynote speech.

The English Suffragettes.

London, July 16.—The suffragettes announced today a new line of procedure in booming their cause and proving to Premier Asquith that "the women of England really desire the vote." They have attacked the seaside and moorland summer resorts. Stands will be erected at all resorts and suffragette spell-binders will hold the boards. Hundreds of suffragettes are using bicycles in their campaign. The Women's Liberal Federation, with 90,000 members, has just completed plans for a series of great garden parties all over the country till far in the summer months. The National Union of Women's Suffrage Societies is organizing for a house-to-house canvass that will reach every corner of the empire. Meanwhile the belligerent tactics in London and the suburbs have not been abandoned.

Mysterious Drowning.

New York, July 16.—Screams from the end of Gouverneur wharf in the East river marked the drowning of an unidentified girl whose fate today is puzzling the police. Hyman Guiterman, an onlooker, who, with John Ward, almost gave his life to save her, is held at Gouverneur hospital on suspicion of knowing something of the crime or the identity of the victim. Guitserman and Ward leaped into river as the girl's cries sounded. The former grasped the girl but just as lifesavers reached the pair he released his hold and the girl sank like a stone. Ward was also nearly exhausted when picked up. Guiterman denies knowing anything of the dead girl.

Dr. Simpson Improving.

New York, July 16.—Dr. J. W. Simpson, the dentist who acquitted of the murder of Barney T. Horner, only to be shot by Mrs. Horner on the doorstep of her home at Northport, L. I., last Monday, is improving. Mrs. Horner is free under $5,000 bail furnished by her daughter, Simpson's wife. She is to be prosecuted for felonious assault.

The Market.

Mr. Bryan Sends Out Invitations.

Lincoln, Neb., July 16.—William Jennings Bryan today sent out invitations to half a dozen big democratic business men, men who have not in the past been known as politicians or even active party men, to visit him during the week if possible at Lincoln, and if not then to meet with him in Chicago on July 25 when he will be there. He seeks advice from these men as to a campaign manager.

When asked today to reveal the identity of the men he wants confer with Mr. Bryan explained that he cannot do so at this time.

Bryan's visit to Chicago on July 25, while ostensibly to meet the democratic national committee and to confer as to the new officers of that body, is really for the purpose of counteracting any influence the national convention of the Hearst followerers, which is to be held two days later, may have.

It can be announced positively that Bryan will make a real spell-binding tour of the east and the doubtful states. He is already conserving his strength to this end.

Cardinal Gibbons Going Abroad.

Baltimore, Md., July, 16.—Cardinal Gibbons will leave Baltimore tomorrow for New York, on his way to the Eucharitic Congress, which will be held in London from September 9 to 18, inclusive, and at which he will be the only American speaker. The cardinal will sail Saturday on the Koenig Albert, of the North German Lloyd line, and land at Naples July 29 or 30. Cardinal Gibbons will visit Rome, and after leaving the Italian capital will probably pay visit to two or three countries before going to London.

Insuring Against Bryan's Election.

New York, July 16.—Fearful of a crash in stocks should Bryan be elected, Wall street firms have taken out $500,000 insurance against that event with Lloyds of London within the last two days and $1,000,000 more is awaiting acceptance in the office of Bertschmann and Maley, the New York agents of the English firm. The insurance is at ten per cent.

Pulled Peeper's Nose.

New York, July 16.—Because a peeping Tom, said to be a wealthy character of the White Light district, poked his nose uninvited into the dressing room of the Countess Rossi at Hammerstein's Theater that organ is sore today. The actress pulled it. And then supers of the show house kicked the Tom out into Broadway.

New York Stock Market.

New York, July 16.—At the opening most changes were losses, and at the end of ten minutes trading the market was irregular.

The tone of the market continued strong after the first hour and toward noon prices of a number of stocks showed further moderate gains. There were indications of a restriction in the leaning of stocks in same issues.

MYSTERIOUS MURDER.

The villages of Marydel and Templeville, about 10 miles from Dover, Del., and just over the Maryland line in Caroline and Queen Anne counties, were greatly excited Tuesday when it was learned that the body of William Williams, aged 64 years, a prominent farmer of that community, had been found propped against the trunk of a tree, with an ugly scar on the top of his head. It was supposed at first that Williams had been lynched, because in his pocket was found a license to marry Elizabeth Walls, the thirteen-year-old daughter of one of his tenants. The prevalent belief now is that Williams was murdered by some of his relatives, who had been bitterly opposed to his marrying the young girl. The facts brought out at the inquest held at Templeville yesterday afternoon do not point to any particular individual. Relatives of the girl refuse to talk.

Dover, Del., July 16.—The body of Wm. Williams, who was lynched by outraged neighbors, because he intended to marry 13-year-old Elizabeth Walls, was buried in Camden, near here today. A great crowd of morbidly curious persons followed the remains to the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

A coroner's jury rendered a verdict that Williams was killed by a blow on the head by some person unknown. The dead man's three sons and two daughters were not present at the inquest.

The authorities of Queen Anne county, Md., as well as those of Delaware have started a searching investigation to discover by whose hand Williams came to his death. It had been practically established that the aged suitor was killed elsewhere than where the body was found.

Samuel Walls, father of the girl Williams intended to wed said today that he had not wished the dead man for a son-in-law on account of his advanced age and that he would not have permitted the match.

Elizabeth Walls, herself, told many contradictory stories of her love affair with Williams. "I used to meet him," she said, "and go for a walk in the woods. He was always very nice to me but I didn't want to marry him because he was too old. When I would tell him this he would hug and kiss me and call me 'honey' and that he loved me more than even his first wife and that if I would marry him he'd make me the happiest girl in the world."

Recent uprisings in northern Mexico were incited yesterday by two Mexican agents of revolutionary juntas in the United States, who traveled disguised as preachers.

BIRTH ON A STREET CAR.

The stork ran a race with a street car in Chicago yesterday. It won and then blockaded cars in front of the City Hall for an hour. Mrs. John Roulioff was being taken to a hospital by a trained nurse in a street car when the stork came. The nurse informed the conductor. The ticket puncher chased out all the passengers, notified a mounted policeman and summoned a physician. While a great throng stood in the streets wondering what was happening, inside the street car a ten pound girl baby was born.

THE ST. LOUIS REPUBLIC.

The St. Louis Republic has passed the century mark. The attention of the world was called to this fact by the publication on Sunday of a 192 page anniversary number. The paper was profusely illustrated and contained 676 columns of advertising.

The Republic is a fine instance of the growth of the papers in the United States, especially in the west. From a four-page "gazette" three columns wide has come in these hundred years the powerful carefully edited and opinion-molding daily Republic. The territory in which the paper is published has grown immeasurably, and it is greatly to the credit of the editors of the Republic that they have been able to keep abreast of the times and make their publication meet the increased demands of their community. In this anniversary number there are sections given up to a detailed account of the growth and prosperity of St. Louis, Missouri and the entire country.

One section contains brief but interesting histories of the other papers in the country which have reached the century mark, among them the Alexandria Gazette which is now in its 108th volume and which extends its hearty congratulations to the Republic for its enterprise and deserved success.

According to the Republic there are sixty newspapers published in the United States that have been in existence for a hundred years or more. Three of these are published in Virginia. The Alexandria Gazette, the Lexington Gazette, and the Lynchburg News the successor of the Lynchburg Virginian.

We have received a copy of the campaign hand-book gotten out by the democratic congressional committee. It is compiled from the Congressional Record and contains matter of much interest to the voter. To aid in defraying the cost of issuing this book it will be sold at 25 cents per copy. Every democrat should have one.

Over Thirty-five Years.

In 1872 there was a great deal of diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera infantum. It was at this time that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was first brought into use. It proved more successful than any other remedy or treatment, and has for thirty-five years maintained that record. From a small beginning its sale and use has extended to every part of the United States and to many foreign countries. Nine druggists out of ten will recommend it when their opinion is asked, although they have other medicines that pay them a greater profit. It can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

POLICE COMMISSIONERS.

The business transacted by the Board of Police Commissioners at their meeting last night was of a routine nature and of no general importance.

A communication was received from Mr. George S. Hinkins, agent for the Southern Railway Company in this city, asking that Miles L. Pankey, a special officer of that company, be appointed a special officer for the entire city without compensation.

Mayor Paff stated that Mr. Pankey already was a State officer, having qualified as such before the Corporation Court and the consideration of the application was postponed until the next meeting.

An informal discussion of the sanitary condition of the city took place after the adjournment of the meeting when Chief Goods, who was present, stated that between 600 and 700 nuisances had been abated in the past few months through the activity of the police, but he admitted that no arrests had been made this summer on account of violations of the law against allowing grass and weeds to flourish on sidewalks and in gutters.

HATPIN HER WEAPON.

Mary Webb, colored, was arrested yesterday by Lieutenant Bettis at the instance of Lydia Toliver, colored, who alleged that she assaulted her with a hatpin. The case came before Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning when the defendant alleged that her husband was in the habit of visiting the complainants, house and she had requested the Toliver woman to keep him away. Yesterday the defendant went to the house of the plaintiff when a quarrel ensued which ended in the Webb woman attempting to use the hatpin on her rival. The husband of the object of her vengeance as well as the husband of the Webb woman seized her and prevented her from using the pin with effect. The accused was fined $5.

NEW SPEED BOAT.

Messrs. Victor and Bruce Emerson have built at the Emerson Pump Works in this city a new motor boat, which, it is believed, will develop higher speed than any other boat on the river. It has been constructed on hydroplane lines, the bow being scow-shaped. The boat is 14 feet, 10 inches long, with three-feet beam. It has three air-tight compartments and seven bulkheads, and is practically unsinkable. The engine will develop from 15 to 20 horse power. The boat and fixtures apart from the engine were made in this city, and all who have examined it pronounce it a fine specimen of the skill of Alexandria mechanics. The boat will be launched during the next few days.

NO RAIN.

St. Swithin's Day has come and gone and with it vanished the hope of the superstitious for a rainy spell. According to the legend the drought will continue for 40 days. Last year it rained on July 15 and a wet season followed. Yesterday the skies were clear and the atmosphere comparatively free from moisture. More pleasant weather could not have been desired. At times the sun's rays made it a little uncomfortable, but there was always a breeze, and a delightfully cool one, from the north, which tempered the heat. Early in the night the mercury took a decided drop, getting considerably below the 80 mark. At noon today it registered 82.

DESERTED FROM STEAMER.

Commander O. C. Marsh, U. S. N., commanding the steamer Yankee, now anchored off this port, has notified the police that George Clarence Huntly, John J. Hayes and Oliver Maxwell Lau, ordinary seamen, have deserted, and that a reward of $20 for the capture of each of the men would be paid.

Michael Heffin, a seaman from the steamer Yankee, was arrested by Officers Young and Sherwood yesterday and turned over to Officer Cleindinst, of Washington. It is charged that Heffin is wanted in that city for the larceny of clothing from Ethel Nagel.

DELINQUENT FINED.

Among the cases before the Police Court this morning was that of a colored woman named Lizzie Carter, who had been arrested by Officer Ferguson for keeping an unlicensed dog. It appears that the woman has been harboring two specimens of the canine creation, and when she discovered that the officer was on her track she procured a license for one of the brutes. Justice Caton imposed a fine of $3. The late George W. Rock once observed that a poor man kept one dog, and a real poor man two or more. Doubtless there are still many such cases in Alexandria.

STILL AT LARGE.

Men are still searching for Ernest McKnight, a negro, 22 years old, who is wanted on the charge of attempting on Monday evening to injure Miss Mary Harrison, the 16-year-old daughter of William Harrison, a truck farmer who lives in Fairfax county, a few miles west of this city. Today several men from the neighborhood went to Leesburg in search of McKnight, who, it is said, was last seen going in that direction. His wife lives there.

PROPERTY SALE.

The heirs of the late Mrs. Mary C. Broadus through Mr. Robert Elliott have sold to Judge C. E. Nicol the property at the northwest corner of Queen and St. Asaph street for $2,000. It is understood that the property will be rented and that Mr. Aylett Nicol, son of Judge Nicol, will make his home there. The property is now being repainted and repaired.

THE RECENT POLICE COURT DECISION.

As there seems to be a misunderstanding as to the nature and effect of the recent decision of the Police Court in regard to the law prohibiting the drainage or water, other than rain water, on streets or alleys whereupon a sewer has been constructured, the following account of the facts of the case and the ordinance under which the decision was made will probably make the matter clear.

The ordinance under which the case was heard was passed by the City Council January 26th, 1904, and is as follows:

Section 1. Be it ordained by the City Council of Alexandria, Virginia, that it shall be unlawful for any person firm or corporation to drain or allow to be drained any house or bath water, or any drainage except rain water, either on any street or alley in this city where a public sewer has been constructed, or may hereafter be constructed, either on the street or in the alley where the property occupied by said person, firm or corporation binds. A penalty of two dollars for each offense is provided. A resident of the city, who owns six houses on Queen street between Columbus and Alfred streets, was cited to appear to show cause why she should not be fined for allowing water, other than rain water, to drain from said houses upon Queen street. The evidence was to the effect that the defendant owned the houses in question, but that they were rented to tenants and were not occupied by the owner; that a sewer had been constructed on the street in front of said houses; that house, bath and dish water was allowed to drain over the sidewalk and upon Queen street; and that the water was allowed to be so drained by the tenants and not the owner. The decision of the court was to the effect that this ordinance prohibited occupants of houses from draining water, other than rain water, on sewered streets; that the owners of houses could not be fined for offences committed by tenants, and that owners could only be fined under this ordinance when they occupied houses from which such prohibited drainage was allowed.

DEATH OF MR. JOHNSTON.

A telegram received in this city yesterday afternoon from New York announced the sudden death of Mr. Frederick Johnston, a former resident of this city. Mr. Johnston was a son of the late Major George Johnston, and was 43 years old. His stepmother, Mrs. Isobel Gregory Johnston, of this city, was notified at Virginia Beach, where she went several weeks ago to spend the summer, and she reached this city this evening. Mr. Johnston was a civil engineer by profession, but some years ago on account of trouble which his eyes were giving him he went to New York to enter in the life insurance business, in which he was engaged with his brother, Mr. G. Dennis Johnston. Mr. Johnston had offices at No. 258 Broadway, New York, but lived at No. 230 Carroll street, Brooklyn, and was on his way home when he was suddenly taken ill. A physician was called and stated that death was due to heart disease. Mr. Johnston was born in this city in 1860. He entered the University of Virginia, from which institution he was graduated, and for a number of years was engaged in civil engineering. Six years ago he moved to Brooklyn. He was a genial gentleman and made many friends wherever he went, all of whom will deeply regret to learn of his death. His remains will be brought here for interment, and the funeral will take place tomorrow from the residence of Mrs. Thomas Leadbeater, on north Washington street.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Michael Heflin, charged with larceny in Washington, was turned over to the authorities of that city.

Lizzie Carter, colored, charged with keeping a dog without a license, was fined $5.

CLEANING THE STREETS.

A number of boys are now being employed by the street department of the city in pulling grass from thoroughfares where the same has been allowed to grow. The police in the meantime are notifying the occupiers of houses to remove grass from the gutters in front of their premises. In most instances the request has been complied with, but in certain cases where grass has sprung up in front of unoccupied houses it still remains as an eyesore.

FORT WASHINGTON INSPECTED.

Secretary of War Wright, accompanied by Assistant Secretary Oliver, Maj. Gen. Bell, chief of staff; Gen. Murray, chief of artillery, and Gen. Crozier, chief of ordinance, went to Fort Washington yesterday on a War Department tugboat on a trip of inspection. The party was entertained at dinner last night by Lieut. Col. William H. Coffin, in command of Fort Washington.

EXCURSION.

A special excursion of the M. E. Church South will be given to Luna Park tomorrow. There will be much to amuse and entertain all who attend and those are promised a pleasant day and evening. At 5:30 p. m. a game of baseball will be played between the Alexandria Athletic Club and the team of the Riversides.

ALEXANDRIA DELEGATES.

There were about one hundred supporters of the new party present John Temple Graves, of Georgia, made the principal address. After the usual preliminaries, the delegates were instructed to vote in the Chicago convention on July 27th for William Randolph Hearst for president of the United States and John Temple Graves for vice-president. Among the delegates there were Messrs. B. Wollberg, J. M. Bachelder and R. C. Acton, all of Alexandria.

Boy's Life Saved.

My little boy, four years old, had a severe attack of dysentery. We had two physicians; both of them gave him up. We then gave him Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy which cured him and believe that it saved his life.—William H. Strolling, Carbon Hill, Ala. SHOT BY A WOMAN.

Hilda Grobe, about 25 years old, from Washington, D. C., was placed in jail at Frederick, Md., yesterday afternoon, having been committed on a charge of having committed a murderous assault upon Claude, alias "Happy," Forrest, a young man of Brunswick, employed as a fireman on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, whom she shot Tuesday night at the home of her sister, Mrs. Molly Winks, near Knoxville. The Grobe woman was visiting her sister. At the Wink's home Tuesday night was also another sister, Jennie Lawson.

According to the story told at the hearing, Forrest and Jennie Lawson were together in a room when the Grobe woman went to the door and fired two shots from a pistol. Both bullets struck Forrest and he is in a serious condition in a Baltimore hospital.

The Grobe woman says the shots were discharged in fun, but it is believed the shooting was the outcome of a quarrel.

Straightened Out the Blunder.

Beef was very scarce in Ladysmith during the siege, but General Sir Ian Hamilton, then a colonel, insisted that "horse is not half bad when properly cooked and when one is used to it. In fact," he said, concluding a discussion, "I have a joint cooked tonight, which I hope you will all sample. Of course, there's beef, too—tonight!" Every one at the table preferred the beef, with the exception of Colonels Ward and Ian Hamilton, who ostentatiously carved generous slices from the "horse-flesh." The dinner was nearly over when one of the servants whispered a communication to Ward. Up he sprang. "I'm distressed, gentlemen," he announced to the startled company. "A silly mistake has been made. Those joints were mixed up somehow, and you have been eating the horse. I'm really annoyed. But I hope you'll be convinced now that the meat is splendid eating. I'm sure you all seemed to enjoy it." Glances were exchanged; mustaches were twirled. Nobody seemed ready with a response. Then a voice from the bottom of the table piped up: "Oh, don't distress yourself, Ward! I thought some mistake had been made, so I just changed those dishes as they stood on the sideboard. It was you and Hamilton who had the horseflesh all right!"

The Oyster and the Cockle.

If the average person were asked what was the strongest living thing it is probable that he would name the lion or some such huge denizen of the forest and would not even think of the unassertive bivalve. But so great is the power possessed by the oyster that to open it a force equal to 1,319.5 times the weight of its shell-less body is required. The shell-less limpet pulls 1,984 times its own weight when in the air and about double when measured in the water. The Mediterranean cockle (Venus murrucosa) can exert a pulling power equal to 2,071 times the weight of its own body. If the human being possessed strength as great in proportion as that the average man would be able to lift the enormous weight of 2,976,000 pounds, pulling in the same degree as the limpet. And if the man pulled in the same proportionate degree as the cockle he would sustain a weight of no less than 3,106,500 pounds.

Nobody Ever "at" London.

A case of irregularity occurs in a cablegram that announces from New York the residence of a certain accused person "at London." You will perceive at once the absurdity of those words—"at London." A New Yorker may want to get at London, but those who live there live "in London." And it is one of the triumphs of London and language (though most irregular) that no one is ever "at" London. You can drop off "at" Paris on the way to anywhere, and you may spend the winter "at" St. Petersburg or "at" New York. You may change cars "at" Chicago. But there comes a moment when the English language gets irregular. Is it when the fifth million is passed? No Englishman was ever "at" London. It would be as irregular as being "at" Asia or "at" heaven.—London Standard.

Iceland From a Lava Wall.

The general impression that Iceland is a cold country is a false one, says a writer in Travel Magazine. In Reykjavik, the capital of the island, I one day perched myself on one of the lava walls and looked at a scene of summer warmth and beauty. Familiar cows and cats and hens were busy in the sunshine. Children, thinly clad, were playing about with shouts of merriment. Potatoes were in full blossom, and cabbage and various vegetables added to the sense of homelike comfort. But such days are oases in vast deserts of rain, for if Iceland in summer is not cold it is not comfortable.

Room Doors on the Stage.

In real life room doors always open in toward the room itself. On the stage, however, room doors, as a rule, open outward, or away from the room. Exits are one of the most difficult parts of the actor's art, and if he or she had to fumble with the handle, pull the door toward them, step round it and pass through they would probably make a clumsy dodge of it. That is why, as a rule, doors are constructed to open outward at a push.

Betty's Gift.

A Lancashire vicar was asked by the choir to call upon old Betty, who was deaf, but who insisted in joining in the solo of the anthem, and to ask her only to sing in the hymns. He shouted into her ear, "Betty, I've been requested to speak to you about your singing." At last she caught the word "singing" and replied: "Not to me be the praise, sir. It's a gift."—Pall Mall Gazette.

Chinese Troops Good Runners.

In the drilling of recruits for the Chinese army each man is required to carry sand in his knapsack. For the first day he carries two ounces; on each succeeding day he increases this amount by two ounces until at last he is carrying sixteen pounds. These men can run at a dog trot for ten consecutive hours and arrive at the end of that time in a fit condition for fighting.

Better Than His Pick.

A story is told of an Irishman who, while walking with his friend, passed a jeweler's shop where there were a lot of precious stones in the window.

"Would you not like to have your pick?"

"Not me pick, but me shovel," said Mike.

Have You a Summer Stove?
The stifling air of a close kitchen is changed to comfortable coolness by installing a New Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove to do the family cooking.

No kitchen furnishing is so convenient as this stove. Gives a working heat at once, and maintains it until turned out—that too, without overheating the room. If you examine the

NEW PERFECTION
Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove
you will see why this is so. The heat from the chimney of the "New Perfection" is concentrated under the kettle and not dissipated through the room by radiation. Thus it does the work of the coal range without its discomfort. Ask your dealer about this stove—if not with him, write our nearest agency.

The Rayo Lamp is a very handsome piece of housefurnishing and gives a clear, powerful light more agreeable than gas or electricity. Safe everywhere and always. Made of brass finely nickel plated—just the thing for the living-room. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

The Prohibitionists.

Columbus, Ohio, July 15.—With the friends of more than a half score of candidates for the presidential nomination claiming that the favorite had a chance to win, the prohibition delegates opened their convention today. Robert H. Patton, a Springfield, Ill., attorney, acted as the temporary chairman. David B. McCalmont, of Franklin, Pa., was made secretary. National Chairman Oliver R. Jones made a report showing wonderful growth of the prohibition sentiment since the last presidential election.

The financial report of Chairman Jones shows that during the four years there has been received by the national committee contributions amounting to $91,452,71 aside from a balance at the beginning of period of $1,592,25. There has been expended in this period $92,585.46, leaving a balance of $745.40

Help for Those Who Have Stomach Trouble.

After doctoring for about twelve years for a bad stomach trouble, and spending nearly five hundred dollars for medicine and doctors' fees, I purchased my wife one box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which did her so much good that she continued to use them and they have done her more good than all of the medicine I bought before.—SAMUEL BOYER, Folsom, Iowa. This medicine is for sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson. Samples free.
